2016 District Chapter of the Year

Two months of 2023 have already gone by, and it has been busy and our FL2G riders are having a blast with the great weather we have been having. We have also had events for not only the riders but those that come by car. FL2G strong is what we say.

We had a wonderful Tec Day in February at the home of Nikki Blaha's son in Naples. Several bikes were worked on and after the work was done on the bikes, what a feast we had, the food was fantastic. A big thank you goes to Nikki's son for hosting this event for us.

March is going to be another busy month for us. Pat and I will be in New York for family issues from February 24 through March 9. Burrrrrr we say, but family comes first. Plus, we will have a chance to celebrate our granddaughter's 24th birthday which is going to be a big surprise for her.

FL2G will be having its annual luncheon and miniature golf on March 6. This has been a fun experience in the past and we are sure it will be again this year. Unfortunately, we will be missing it this year.

March 16 through 18 is the Florida District Rally at the Altamont Springs Hilton in Altamont Springs Fl. You don't have to be a member of Eagle Wings Motorcycle Association to attend. It will be a fun event to attend and to meet a lot of our Goldwing friends from the whole Region. Come join us. The $10,000 raffle will be drawn on Saturday during the event and hopefully someone we know will win this year.

Another great event for March will be our annual say goodbye to the snowbirds picnic held at W. Franklin Locks South, Alva, Fl on Sunday, March 26, 2023 from 11am to 2pm. Everyone will bring a covered dish, and we will have games to play and lots of fun. We always have a blast at this event. Hope to see you all there.

Enjoy the beautiful weather we are having. Watch for traffic out there it is awful this year.

So Have fun and ride safely.

March 2023

Greetings to All,

Whoo hoo! It's almost here. March 16th through March 18th is our Florida District Rally. We are looking forward to a great time with our EWMA friends. We have some fun on-bike games waiting for you. We will have 2-wheel and 3-wheel motorcycle games. Solo or pairs can participate.

We will be having our $10,000 Grand Prize Drawing at closing ceremonies. There are still some outstanding Raffle Ticket monies due from some of our Chapters. Please send in any outstanding Chapter Raffle Ticket money now. You will still be making checks payable to: "GWRRA Florida District Rider Education". We will not be changing our name on our bank account to "EWMA" until after our District Rally.

I often write my safety articles based on something I heard of that happened to another motorcyclist or something that happened to me. This article is about something that I experienced. I was on a day ride Wednesday when I began to feel some vibration in the handlebars of my 2008 GL1800 Honda Gold Wing. I immediately thought that this might be the front wheel bearings. I was going to check it out when I stopped for gas, which was close by. Before I got to the gas station I began to hear a plastic rubbing noise. The front plastic fender can telegraph the grinding noise of the worn bearing which is what I was hearing. I made it to the gas station and put the bike on the center stand so I could freely turn the front wheel. I could feel resistance in the wheel turning and when I put my ear against the plastic front fender and spun the front wheel, I could hear the vibration. Plastic front fenders will channel the vibration noise and make it easier to hear.

Front wheel bearings on most motorcycles are sealed. That means you cannot grease them at normal maintenance intervals. Every time you have a front tire replaced you should check, or have the mechanic check the condition of your front wheel bearings. If you are not ready to remove the front wheel for a new tire, checking the bearings can be done by supporting the bike with the front wheel off the ground. Spin the wheel and see if you can feel any resistance or slack. Hold on to the opposite sides of the wheel with both hands. Shake the wheel to see if you feel any free play. Look at the bearing dust covers on both sides of the wheel at the axle for metal dust shavings. You could use a mechanic's stethoscope to listen at the axle as you spin the wheel for any grinding or strange noise. If the wheel is removed you could put your finger in the center of the bearings and spin the inner race feeling for any roughness in movement.

There is no set amount of mileage when front wheel bearings will fail. It all depends on the conditions the bike is ridden in. If you travel in a lot of wet conditions or ride on muddy dirt roads, your chances of front wheel bearing failure is increased. My bike has 102,000 miles on it and has been ridden on many cross country trips in the rain. I tend to keep my motorcycles for a long time and usually change the front wheel bearings around 100,000 miles when it is time to replace the front tire. I didn't need a front tire yet which is why I had not changed this bike's front bearings as yet. Knowing the tell tale signs of front wheel bearing failure is what alerted me. Most motorcycles only have one wheel bearing on each side of the wheel. The Honda GL1800 has two wheel bearings on each side of the wheel. That means when the outer bearing fails, the inner bearing will keep you from having instant loss of control. When one bearing fails it is time to replace all 4 bearings and 2 outer seals.

It would be safer to change your front wheel bearings early rather than waiting for a dangerous mishap. The front wheel could lock up and you are going down. Preventative maintenance is the key to safe riding.

We are here to assist you with your training needs.

Feb 12th

What a perfect day for our semi-annual tech day. Lots of work accomplished with everyone pitching in and great food to end the day. Big thanks to Nikki's son Carl for the great venue and for helping with a couple projects and also for his kids Samantha and Parker for keeping us all entertained.

Of all the blonde jokes, this one has to be one of the best -
- because it makes football make sense!

A guy took his blonde girlfriend to the Super Bowl game. They had great seats right behind their team's bench.

After the game, he asked her how she liked it.

"Oh, I really liked it," she replied, "especially the tight pants and all the big muscles, but I just couldn't understand why they were killing each other over 25 cents."

Dumbfounded, her boyfriend asked, "What do you mean?"

"Well, they flipped a coin, one team got it and then for the rest of the game, all they kept screaming was... 'Get the quarterback! Get the quarterback!' I'm like...Helloooooo? It's only 25 cents!"

My doctor asked if anyone in my family suffered from mental illness and I said, "No, we all seem to enjoy it."

When I was a kid, I wanted to be older... This is not what I expected.

One minute you're young and fun. Next, you turn down the car stereo to see better.

Being an adult is the dumbest thing I have ever done.

Common sense is not a gift. It's punishment because you have to deal with everyone who doesn't have it.

If you can't think of a word, say "I forgot the English word for it." That way people will think you're bilingual instead of an idiot.

I don't mean to brag, but I finished my 14-day diet food supply in 3 hours and 20 minutes.

Never sing in the shower! Singing leads to dancing, dancing leads to slipping, and slipping leads to paramedics seeing you naked. So, remember... don't sing!

I may not be that funny or athletic or good looking or smart or talented. ...I forgot where I was going with this.
